Minutes
February 5, 2019

Carole Homer, Jole Williams, John Williams, Mary Clare Hanson, Judy Dennington, Louise Purdin, Tracy Marple, Kirby Smith

Meeting called to order at 1:10.

Old Business

The Italian potluck was not well attended, but all those in attendance enjoyed the evening. We discussed whether the potluck is a valuable activity due to apparent lack of interest in the community.

Bunco had nine people for the last Bunco evening, so Valerie has scheduled another evening later in February.

Valentine dessert potluck will be on Saturday, February 9 at 2:00 P.M. If the weather turns bad, we may have to cancel.

Golf awards/mugs. Louise found mugs online that she recommends. These mugs are only $1.00 at Dollar Tree online, so Louise will order 18. We also need to plan for raffle prizes and tournament preparation.

New Business

We are considering another clothing exchange. We discussed possible options and decided to have the event here at the SHOA office. Participants may bring up to 15 items. We will host this event on March 23, from 1 to 4 P.M.

Kirby reported on the Golf tournament that will be held on June 8, 2019. He has already received one raffle prize already, a practice net. One of the prizes is usually a golf club, so we are all watching for sales on clubs. We will do most of the work for this project from March to May. This is our annual fund-raising event to provide scholarships for local high school seniors. We need to prepare flyers yet this month. The afternoon of June 7 will be the preparation for the tournament. It takes at least 6 people to prepare for and work at the tournament.

Mary Clare reported on the Spring craft scheduled for April. She will contact Sue Raymond at the Bay Ave Gallery about a craft project. The class is usually limited to 12 people, so people will sign up for this project.

We discussed the annual Fishing Derby on Memorial weekend. Judy suggested that we offer to assist DuWayne Mott with this project if he wishes.

Meeting adjourned at 2:30 P.M. John moved, Carole seconded motion to adjourn.
