Entertainment/News

The winter season can be a challenging time to stay active, with colder temperatures, slippery conditions, and fewer daylight hours.

But staying physically active is one of the best ways to improve your mental and physical health and keep yourself on track to reach your fitness goals. Physical activity can help you sleep better and reduce anxiety. Regular physical activity also helps you feel better, improve your balance, lower your risk of type 2 diabetes and many kinds of cancer, strengthen bones and muscles, lower blood pressure, maintain or lose weight, and keep your mind sharp as you get older.

Emerging research also suggests physical activity may help boost your immune function. Experts recommend adults get at least 150 minutes a week of moderate intensity physical activity... Get started today with our 6 tips to stay active all winter long.

- 1. Take nature walks -Weather permitting, schedule time during the day to enjoy nature. Take a stroll around a safe neighborhood or park.
- 2. Monitor the weather and plan ahead - Weather forecasts give several days' notice to prepare for your week. Be sure to monitor the weather, dress appropriately, and plan your winter activity accordingly.
- 3. Wear Layers-Wear several layers of comfortable clothing so that items can be removed easily as you become warmer. Layers will help you guard against overheating, sweating, and eventually becoming colder.
- 4. Workout Online-Consider tuning into a TV, online, live Zoom, or Instagram workout class. Find free or low-cost exercise videos online to help you do aerobics, dance, stretch, and build strength.
- 5. Do some chores -When bad weather keeps you from going outside, look for ways to be physically active indoors. Housework such as vacuuming, sweeping, and cleaning all count towards your physical activity goals...
- 6. Volunteer in active ways while maintaining social distance -Help others while helping yourself. Look for volunteer opportunities that involve physical activity such as walking dogs for elderly neighbors or shoveling snow. When volunteering, remember to follow social distancing recommendations to keep yourself and others safe.

Rainy Day Activities

- ◆ World Kite Museum and Hall of Fame—303 SW Sid Snider Drive, Long Beach, WA —360-642-4020- <https://kitefestival.com/> -The World Kite Foundation in downtown Long Beach Washington is one of the best places to visit for the entire family. It has one of the complete collections of Japanese kites outside of Japan, amongst many other wonderful kites worldwide. From fighting kites to colorful choreography, the history of kites around the globe will delight everyone. See our photos of the kite festivals held the third week of August every year.
- ◆ Cranberry Museum and Demonstration Farm— 2907 Pioneer Rd, Long Beach, WA-360-642-5553 - <https://cranberrymuseum.com/> Cranberry harvesting is almost as old as the Long Beach Peninsula itself. Long before pilgrims arrived in 1620, the Native Americans used cranberries with dried deer meat or salmon and melted fat to make a convenience food that could hold for a long time. There is so much to learn about the local customs and history with so little time. For that perfect gift to take home, be sure to stop by the gift shop. This institution is just a short walk from Handy Hangout Vacation Rental, also located on Pioneer Road.
- ◆ Marsh's Free Museum—409 Pacific Ave, Long Beach, WA—360-642-2188—<https://www.marshsfreemuseum.com/> -Marsh's is more of a turn-of-the-century curiosity shop housing the world-famous Jake the half-man, half-alligator than a historical archive. Marsh's has delighted visitors for decades with its treasure trove of antiques, curios, vintage photographs, old rifles, swords, drums, and spears, plus much more. The gift shop is one of the best places to buy that one-of-a-kind souvenir. This is a must-see for travelers on a budget or families with children. Marsh's is steps from all of our downtown Long Beach WA homes.
- ◆ Lewis and Clark Interpretive Center— 244 Robert Gray Drive, Ilwaco, WA —360-642-3029- <https://www.parks.wa.gov/187/Cape-Disappointment> -This is a fabulous center and a must-stop for family fun on the Long Beach Washington Peninsula. Located high above the ocean surf with breathtaking ocean and lighthouse views, there is likely no better view on all of the Washington Coast. If you only have time for one educational stop, this is it. There is a short 1/2 mile hike to the historic Cape Disappointment Lighthouse, past Dead Man's Hollow, and up a short steep hill to the lighthouse.
- ◆ Columbia River Maritime Museum—1792 Marine Dr, Astoria, OR—503-325-2323 -<https://www.crmn.org/> - The family-fun and kid-friendly Columbia River Maritime Center is located in Astoria, Oregon, right across the Columbia River and about a 20-minute drive from Long Beach, Washington. This fabulous institution explores the Columbia River's history, from the days of dugout canoes to exemplary exhibits of coast guard rescue missions. The Mouth of the Columbia River is one of the most dangerous passages globally, and this renowned maritime gallery is not to be missed.
- ◆ Columbia Heritage Museum—115 Lake St. SE, Ilwaco, WA—<https://columbiapacificheritagemuseum.org/> -The Columbia Pacific Heritage Center highlights the Columbia Pacific region's history with a collection of over 23,000 artifacts, photos, and historical objects. It is open Tuesdays through Saturdays. There is no better place to visit if you are serious about learning more about the local history of the Long Beach Washington Peninsula.
- ◆ Fort Columbia Interpretive Center—Fort Columbia, Chinook, WA —360-777-8221 -<https://www.parks.wa.gov/506/Fort-Columbia> -The Fort Columbia Interpretive Center focuses on the fur trade, military community, and exploration of the Columbia. This interpretive center is only open in the summer, but you can visit Fort Columbia Historic State Park any time of the year. This is a family-fun place to visit, and children especially love exploring the old World War II bunkers.
- ◆ Appelo Archives Center—1056 State Route 4, Naselle, WA— 360-484-7103—<https://www.appeloarchives.org/> -The archive center is home to displays of the area's history and heritage. Inside is a genealogy corner, a library, and an extensive collection of Finnish books. You can also cozy up in their cafe and bookstore with a hot coffee.
- ◆ Pacific County Historical Society—1008 W. Robert Bush Dr, South Bend, WA—360-875-5224—<https://www.facebook.com/PacificCountyHistoricalSociety> -The historical society's collection and archives showcase Pacific County's history. In addition, this foundation has several exhibits and unique artifacts in South Bend (a great place to stop on your way to Long Beach, Washington, from Seattle). A bookstore also emphasizes Washington and local history and several local products.
- ◆ Northwest Carriage Museum—314 Alder St., Raymond, WA—360-942-4150- <https://nwcarriagemuseum.org/> -The Carriage wants you to get "carried away" with over 50 historic carriages, buggies, and wagons (and counting!) and interesting artifacts on display. They do group tours as well as educational tours. This museum makes a great stop from Seattle, WA, to the Long Beach Peninsula.
- ◆ Knappton Cove Heritage Center—521 WA State Rte 401, Naselle, WA— 503-738-5206—<https://www.knapptoncoveheritagecenter.org/> - Carefully preserved and full of fascinating artifacts from another era, Knappton Cove was once the US Columbia River Quarantine Station, the Columbia River's "Ellis Island." Check their season schedule or call to set an appointment.
- ◆ Willapa Bay Interpretive Center—3311 275th St., Ocean Park, WA- Once home to an oyster grower and his family, this interpretive center offers a glimpse into Willapa Bay's oyster industry's history, now almost 150 years old. Artist Nancy Lloyd of Oysterville created the display.

Outfall Updates

Are you wondering why the canal and Seabreeze Lake water levels are so high? All the recent storms pushed large amounts of debris (sand, logs, vegetation) toward the shore and the outfall gates become blocked. The south outfall is located at 328th and G Street and the north outfall is located at 350th and G Street. Pacific County was at both outfalls several times over the last few weeks to clear the debris but the continued storms mean more debris is push debris back to shore blocking the gates. Pacific County will continue to clear both outfalls as much as necessary.

Several planned updates to the RV storage site and compactor area to improve traffic flow are complete.

Communications Manager Dan Nelson

Recycle your old, inefficient wood stove and earn a reward!

To help reduce the amount of Particulate Matter (PM2.5) in all six counties within our jurisdiction ORCAA has secured a Wood Smoke Reduction grant from the Washington Department of Ecology to provide wood stove RECYCLING AWARDS. This Wood Stove Recycling Award is available for residents of Clallam, Grays Harbor, Jefferson, Mason, Pacific, and Thurston Counties.

The funding is provided by the Washington Department of Ecology through a Wood Smoke Reduction Grant. To participate, residents of those counties must remove and destroy a wood stove or fireplace insert that is NOT compliant with EPA's 2020 New Source Performance Standards. Residents who qualify for the above may receive the RECYCLING AWARD of $500 to remove and destroy that old, uncertified wood-burning appliance. Instructions on participation and all necessary forms can be found at:

Fine Policy on Off-leash Pets

Covenant Corner

Covenant 5.14, under the Owner's Responsibilities section says:

"Pets and their behavior are the responsibility of the owner and shall be maintained in such a manner as not to adversely affect others. Dogs are to be confined to the owner's property or kept on leash...Animals whose behavior threatens members of the public are prohibited and the Association may direct the owner to permanently remove the animal from any lot in Surfside Estates..."

The intent of this restrictive covenant is to keep members, other pets, and wildlife safe and healthy and it is consistent with Pacific County ordinance 36.

The "off-leash" section of the covenant has a special fine structure for any violations. In the Operations Manual (pages 40-41), the following policy is applied to violations involving off-leash dogs:

"After confirmation that a violation of the above quoted language has occurred, a warning letter shall be sent to the owner of the dog or other person who may be responsible for the dog. The matter will then stay open for a period of 60 days after this warning letter is sent. If there is another confirmed violation of the above-quoted language within this 60-day period, then

- a. a fine of $100.00 a day, for each day in which one or more confirmed violations occurs, will be assessed [sic] against the owner of the dog or other person responsible for the dog.
- b. the letter described in Section 6.4 of the Restrictive Covenants will be sent to the owner of the dog or other person responsible for the dog and
- c. the matter will then stay open, and fines will be assessed, until there have been no confirmed violations for six months. If there is no confirmed violation within this six-month period, then the matter will be closed.

Confirmation of violations of the above-quoted language may be by any credible means (including, but is not limited to, photographic evidence and reliable eye witness account) that the dog is off the property of the owner or other person responsible for the dog and is not on a leash held by a person. "

Please, keep your pets and others safe by restricting them to your property, and if you go for a walk, use a leash!

United States Postal Service Increases Price of First-Class Stamp

The USPS has announced a rate increase for letter mail, postcards, flats, other "market dominant" as well as competitive products that will go into effect on January 22, 2023. The new rates include a three-cent increase in the retail price of a First-Class Mail Forever stamp from .60 cents to .63 cents. Metered clients will continue to maintain a 3-cent discount on First-Class stamps.

A message from the PUD...

"Currently, we are only able to update the PUD'S Facebook page for outages. I know it can be frustrating and time consuming getting through the telephone lines, and that not everyone has a Facebook account. Until we can implement another source, the best thing to do is call your local office or check Facebook. The PUD's Facebook page is accessible to everyone, not just those that have Facebook profiles. Customers that do not have Facebook, but have internet, can do a quick search for the Facebook page and see the District's posts about outages."

For immediate questions, concerns & outage reporting please call your local office at 360-642-3191.

INSIGHT FOR ELDERERS—FAMILY GENEALOGY

Date: Wednesday, January 25, 2023, 2:00 to 4:00 pm

Presented by: Sandi Melvin

Location: Oysterville Schoolhouse, 3322 School Road, Oysterville

Let history come alive as you explore your own family's link to monumental events of the past. Sandi will pass on tips from years of her own research and explore some factors that might motivate you to become a passionate researcher. She will share ideas about how to get started or to overcome brick walls you may have already encountered. Have you ever pondered where or how your great-great grandparents lived or how their medical history might affect you?

Genealogy may help you uncover circumstances of their day-to-day lives, open doors to their relationships, status, possessions, professions, experiences, and possibly actual old photos; through wills, deeds, census data, and other valued archives. To properly build a family tree you need to know physical places to search, as well as how to search online. You need to know what data to trust, how to uncover obscure facts, issues with online genealogy programs, how to use DNA, and the value of family lore.

Sandra (Sandi) Melvin has lived the majority of her life on the Columbia River and the Long Beach Peninsula, however, she spent 18 years in the oil fields of Southeast Texas as a professional genealogical researcher searching for the rightful owners of mineral rights for various oil companies. She has served as president of the Clatsop County Genealogical Society, president of the Long Beach Genealogical Society, and numerous other historical societies and heritage museums.

The Mission Statement of INSIGHT FOR ELDERERS is to provide opportunity for continued learning for seniors through lectures and discussions on critical topics relevant to their physical, mental and emotional wellbeing. Subjects will include local ecology and geology, legal and financial advice for seniors, habits for living well, recreational opportunities, death and dying, living with pain, and much more. We are hoping these lectures will provide for rousing discussion and opportunities to form a better community. For more information contact Anthony Pfannenstiel at Tonypfan@aol.com.

Reva has been involved in wildlife rehab for the past nine years. She opened Peninsula Wild Care (PWC) in February 2021. She has her state rehabilitation license. Reva is not with the Department of Fish and Wildlife; PWC is a small nonprofit wildlife rehabilitation center here in Ocean Park.

Peninsula Wild Care rescues Washington wildlife from life threatening situations. They provide care, veterinary medical treatment as needed, and assist orphaned, wild animals. Their mission is to reintroduce previously injured and orphaned wild animals back into their natural habitat and to educate children and adults about the value of Washington wild animals and conservation.

PWC is a small non-profit, 501(c)(3), with an all volunteer staff. They serve Pacific and Wahkiakum Counties. They are permitted to rehabilitate small mammals and provide restricted care to most bird species. For more information go to <https://www.peninsulawildcare.org/> or call 360-947-3188.

ARCHITECTURAL COMMITTEE

Plan on installing a fence, a shed, a gazebo or building a garage or a house?

REMINDER...

ALL building plans must be submitted to the Architectural Committee prior to any construction.

Pacific County will not approve permitting until the committee has signed off on all plans.

The committee meets every Tuesdays at 9 a.m. at the business office. The building packets are on our website at surfsideonline.org/forms/ or you can pick them up from the business office. Applications must be received by end of day on Thursdays to make the agenda for the following Tuesday's meeting.

Please notify the business office if you want to attend the meeting in person.

If you are building on a vacant lot without an address, please post a sign so the committee knows which lot will be developed.

Two (2) sets of plans must be submitted to the committee. Once approved, you will get a copy of the approved plan. Take it to the county for their approval as needed. Surfside will retain one set of approved plans to keep on file.

For more detailed information on the Architectural Committee duties and guidelines go to our website surfsideonline.org, select the Other tab, then Governing Documents. Download the Operations Manual and the Surfside Restrictive Covenants or call the business office 360-665-4171 with questions.
